

活動議程如下：

【Enhancing care & well-being of older adults via technology 科技的使用與增進中老年人的照護與健康之相關性研究】
日期	活動時間	主題
10/23	15:30-17:30	• Define the use of technology in healthcare for older adults (5mins) • Discuss the range of assistive technology (i.e. telehealth/telecare, telepresence robots, social and companion robots as well as other wearable technology) to enhance health care of older adults with/(out) cognitive impairments (15mins) • Examines challenges and barriers to implementation, adoption, and innovation (10mins) • Provide an overview of my aging research that involves these technology (15mins) • Focus on a feasibility study outcomes on DreamPad to improve sleep and reduce wandering and agitated behaviours in people living with dementia (15mins) • Demonstration of DreamPad and SenseWear technology (15-20mins) • Q&A (10-15mins)

講師簡歷：

Dr. Cindy Jones

Associa Professor, Faculty of Health Sciences & Medicine, Bond University , Australia

Education/Academic qualification

- Health, Doctor of Philosophy, Griffith University Queensland, 2009
- Education, Graduate Certificate in Higher Education, Griffith University Queensland, 2008
- Psychology, Graduate Diploma in Psychology, Griffith University Queensland, 2005
- Psychology, Bachelor of Arts, Griffith University Queensland, 2004
- Human Resource Management, Bachelor of Business, Griffith University Queensland, 2004

External positions

- Lecturer & Research Fellow (Griffith Health - School of Nursing & Midwifery / Menzies Health Institute, Queensland), Griffith University Queensland, 2016 → 2018
- Lecturer & Research Fellow (Griffith Health - School of Nursing & Midwifery / Centre for Health Practice Innovation), Griffith University Queensland, 2009 → 2015
- Manager (Griffith Health Institute - Research Centre for Clinical and Community Practice Innovation), Griffith University Queensland , 2007 → 2009